The interface also includes a 'Stored Video' tab, a 'Live Video' tab, a 'Sort by' dropdown (set to 'Title A-Z'), a 'View' dropdown, and a 'Page 1 of 2' navigation link. A red arrow points to the 'Page 1 of 2' link, and another red arrow points to the 'ACSC Wood' channel entry.

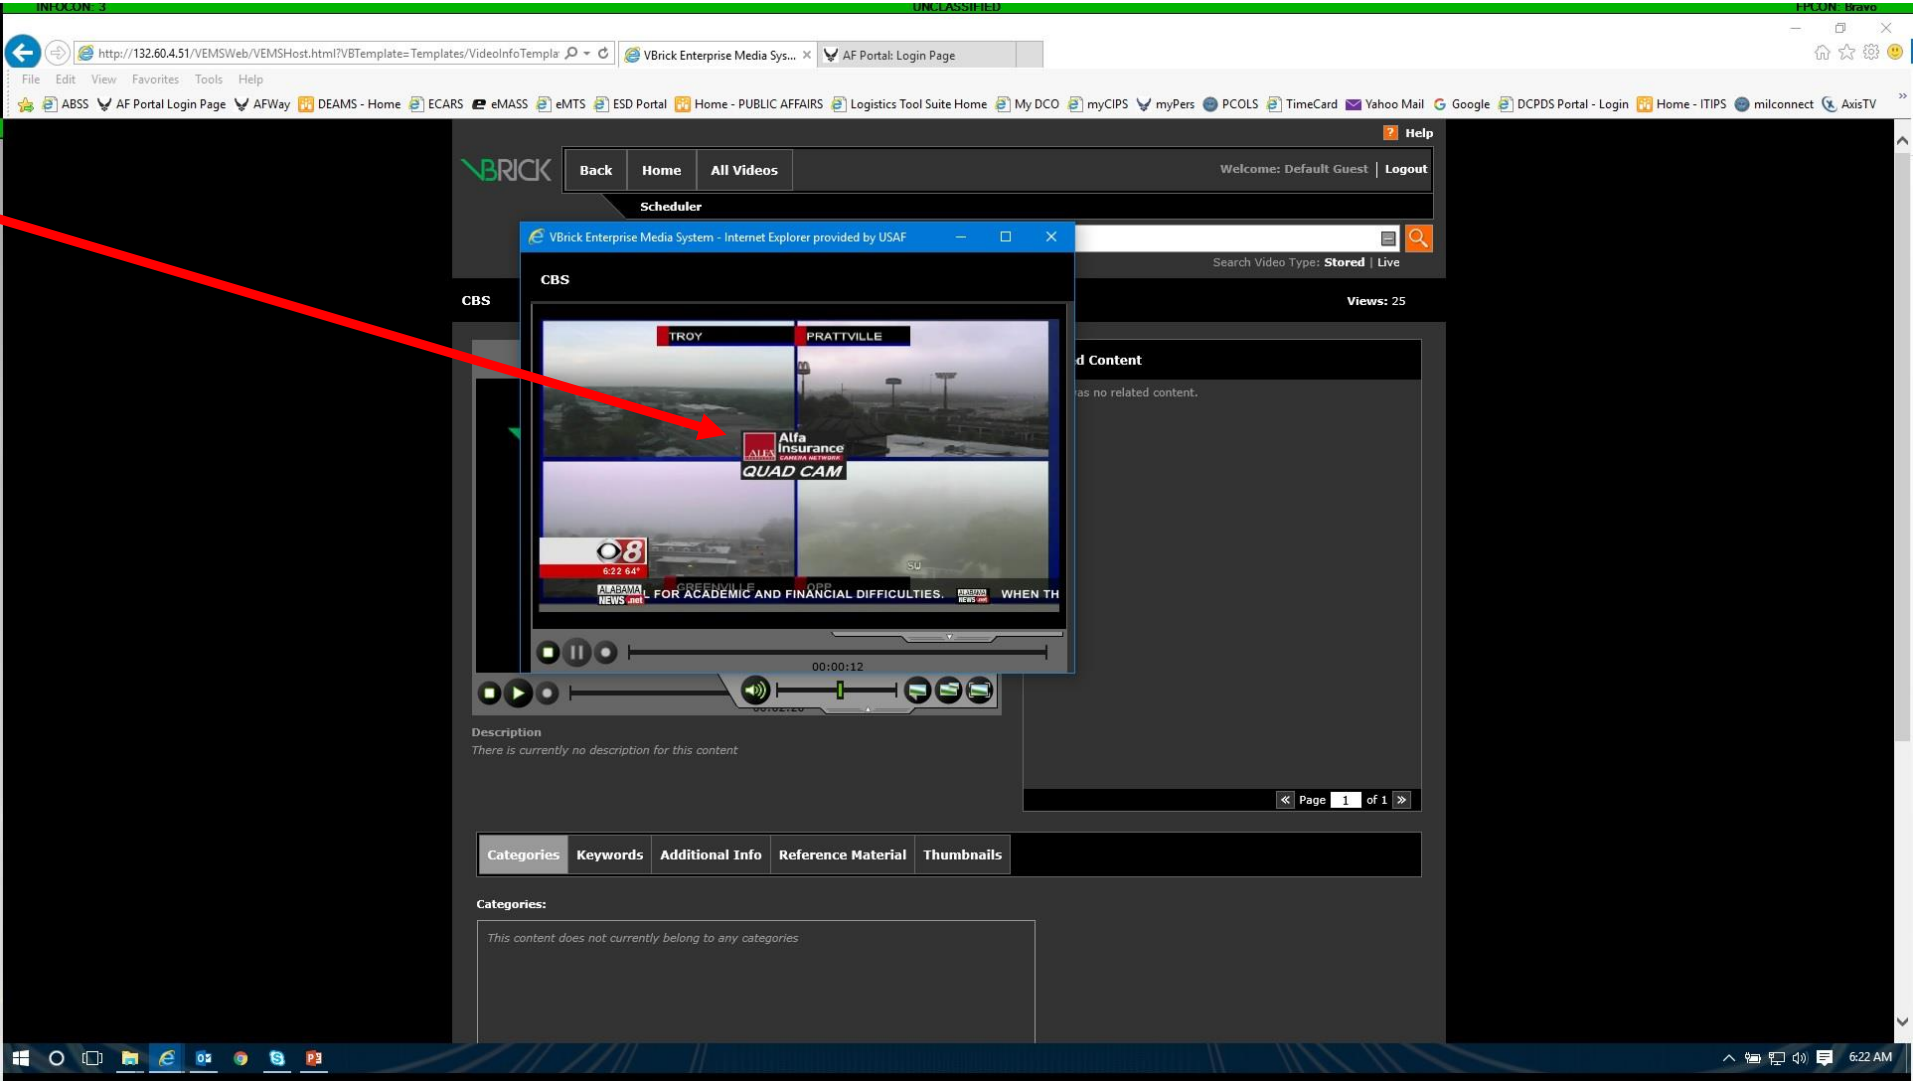

This is the main player screen. To access player functions click the dropdown.

The screenshot displays the VBrick Enterprise Media System web interface. At the top, a navigation bar includes the VBrick logo and tabs for 'Back', 'Home', and 'All Videos'. A 'Scheduler' section is visible below the navigation. The main content area features a video player showing a CNN news broadcast with the headline 'TRUMP WHITE HOUSE TO KEEP VISITOR'S LOGS SECRET'. A red arrow points to a dropdown menu in the top right corner of the video player, which is used to access player functions. To the right of the video player is a 'Related Content' section, which currently displays 'There was no related content.' Below the video player, there is a 'Description' section with the text 'There is currently no description for this content.' and a 'Categories' section with the text 'This content does not currently belong to any categories'. The interface also includes a search bar, a 'Logout' link, and a 'Views: 9' indicator. The bottom of the screen shows a Windows taskbar with various application icons and a system clock indicating 5:26 AM.

The “Pop Out” button will spawn a separate player window.

This is the “Pop Out” window.
Note: This window is independent of the main V-Brick window

When you have finished watching your programming, click the logout button.
